

K-rad in K-land

K-land is a wondrous place goats fixed on goats long distended necks white goat teeth snagging supple leaf

A place with endless tents on endless streets flowing with endless people pursuing endless dreams

Big buildings everywhere with endless stairs and halls rooms with endless seat where endless people endlessly shoo effete

Green and amber fields rimmed by mountain round props for cell-phone towers lest the happy valley fills with those dropped calls

Fields of milkweed bloom orange fluttering butterflies as rare as K-rad's base filled with catheters syringes v-granados gloves and tape where Pop and K-rad interface
