

NUDE

To bathe the body
cover it
with ambrosial things
supernal silks
indulgent ecstasy
its touch its satin feel some prefer au natural
bare-skinned
nearly naked
Some cover the body
with leather
fine wools creams colorants too a pinch botox here
botox there.
Underneath it all they remain
yet not naked
To hint at body's supple line its sleek flow
its undressed
sensual nudity
Tiffany, sarcenet and cypres nude allure flows through Some choose to suffer
naked
nothing is covered
nothing is hidden
to show what is
under the skin
beneath the flesh
within the body
beneath the clothing
beyond the body
to show themselves.
